

Shift Manager

About Bremworth

Bremworth is a premium rug and carpet company with strong roots in New Zealand. The flooring industry is dominated by plastic. We believe there is a better way. Guided by our purpose of finding more sustainable solutions, we're on a transformational journey focused on helping consumers to bring more natural products into their homes and daily lives.

Our people combine innovative thinking with the belief that natural is best. Our 60+ years of experience has taught us that wool is not only 100% natural, biodegradable and renewable, but it's also a brilliant fibre for design innovation and overall flooring performance.

Bremworth was voted New Zealand's most trusted carpet brand for eight consecutive years, employing over 400 people across New Zealand and Australia, with local sales teams based in New South Wales, Victoria, Queensland, South Australia and Western Australia.

Join us on our journey and Let's Go Good Together

About the role

To assist the Production Manager in enabling the overall performance and the responsibility and accountability for the short-term planning and day-to-day leadership and management of designated shifts and the resources allocated to these operations. Core competencies are measured around driving results, engagement, customer focus, with a collaborative, resilient and courageous approach. To achieve maximum efficiency, quality, service, safety, sustainability, continuous improvement, and profitability. To understand, comply and where necessary enforce, company policies and practices currently in place and any new policies/practices that are implemented.

Key Responsibilities

The position of Day Shift Supervisor encompasses the following major functions or Key Result Areas:

- Develops and communicates key initiatives to improve plant performance
- To ensure the day-to-day operations are run in a timely, efficient and productive manner while achieving the quality targets and meeting KPI's
- Ensures all safety rules and regulations are followed
- Proactively develop and maintain collaborative working relationships with and between all business areas
- Provide strong leadership direction and ensure high performance
- Any other reasonable duties as may be requested from time to time, including cover other shifts as required
- To work in close partnerships with all key internal customers
- To identify ineffective practices and remove them

Bremworth

- Ensuring good relationships and teamwork across the shifts

This position will suit someone who is

A natural go getter who wants to make a genuine difference

And has:

Experience in leading a team

A natural desire to collaborate

Excellent communication, interpersonal, and organisational skills

High energy and motivated

How do I apply?

If this sounds like the perfect role for you, apply now!

Please attach your cover letter and resume.